

Are you trying to source parts that are being discontinued?

Selco Products designs and manufactures disc thermostats both hermetic and non-hermetic and thermal protectors for many different applications and industries.

Disc thermostats:

- UL approved
- Hermetic and non-hermetic options
- Inventory readily available
- Produced to industry standards to meet the needs of OEMs
- Can be crossed from direct competitors that are discontinuing / EOL

Selco's thermal protectors:

- Over 100 active SKU's on the shelf in Reno, NV
- Standard stocked calibration ranges are 30°C to 200°C
- Available normally open or normally closed
- Creep action or snap action
- Monitor, regulate or limit the temperature of a device
- Wide selection of leads and insulating sleeve options
- Can be crossed from direct competitors

CUSTOM THERMOSTAT OPTIONS AVAILABLE

Multiple mounting options, terminals, and temperatures are available. Please contact us with your application requirements for availability.

OTHER INFORMATION

See how thermostats and thermal protectors are used in everyday applications HERE and HERE! Can't find your part number listed? Give our sales team a call with your thermostat or application requirements and one of our sales representatives will assist you!